On December 15, 2005, this Court, acting pursuant to a transfer order from the U.S. Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation and Rule 42(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, consolidated twenty-four related securities fraud actions filed against Doral Financial Corporation<sup>1</sup> and certain of its directors and officers, alleging a scheme of systematic accounting fraud designed to inflate the company's financial statements.<sup>2</sup>

The five shareholder derivative actions allege breaches of fiduciary duties, abuse of control, gross mismanagement, waste of corporate assets, unjust enrichment, and violations of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and were initiated against some or all of the following officers and directors: Salomon Levis, Ricardo Melendez, Mario Levis, Zoila Levis, Fernando R. actions filed motions for appointment of lead derivative plaintiff and designation of lead derivative counsel. The movants are the following:

(1) Samuel Freeborn, III and Rosenbaum Capital, LLC seek appointment as co-lead derivative plaintiffs, and the appointment of William B. Federman of the law firm of Federman & Sherwood and Brian M. Felgoise of the Law Offices of Brian M. Felgoise as co-lead derivative counsel.

(2) Estelle Heimann failed to appear at the December 15, 2005 hearing before me on the issue, so I deem her motion abandoned.

No statutory authority exists for the appointment of lead plaintiff in shareholder derivative actions. The court should seek appropriate leadership structure to coordinate the litigation and avoid duplication. See MacAlister v. Guterman, 263 F.2d 65, 68-69 (2d Cir. 1958). Accordingly, I designate Rosenbaum Capital, LLC as lead derivative plaintiff, and appoint William B. Federman of Federman & Sherwood as lead derivative counsel,<sup>3</sup> while reserving the right hereafter to modify the lead counsel structure in the best interests of the litigants.

So ordered.
